Subject: Re: 6th Floor Museum

I spoke with Marianne Anne to confirm our appointment. I told her we should plan on needing two hours together, from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon and that we wanted to meet with them to discuss relevant issues and also see where their archival collection is kept. I made it clear that w did not need to view films, but we would like to see where they are stored. Finally, I said that a list of the holdings would be helpful to us. Marianne Anne said that they could give us a partial list, but that they were in the process of switching over to a new computer system. Then she shifted gears a bit and became vague, saying that they could not give an inventory of everything they had and that she was not aware of any place that gave such information out. I did not press her on the point. I figured that we could deal with it when we meet. One last point. She said that the director and her (and Gary Mack, I assume) want to have lunch with us. They have blocked the director's schedule until 1:00 p.m. We can get out of lunch if we want, but I thought it would be a good idea, unless things deteriorate very badly during the meeting.
