Subject: Re: Meeting

I would suggest that it would be best to schedule a trip to review records as close to the July meeting as possible. I'll be in touch next week with a more concrete suggestion. Have a nice weekend.

David: I defer to your judgment in this. Should I, and any others, consider making a day trip to review records, or does the same problem preclude that as well? (I've set the time aside and could make a day trip, if that will facilitate review at the July meeting.) Let me know.
Bill

At the last meeting, we discussed the possibility of cancelling the second June meeting. It is my strong recommendation that we do so. With the staff in the field (FBI team in New Orleans this week dealing with Metropolitan Crime Commission records, and the CIA team in Boston next week) it will be extremely difficult for us to prepare for and support two full meetings two weeks apart (the July meeting is scheduled for the 9th and 10th). We can spend our time far better in preparing for the July meeting. I hope that you will agree. If you want to discuss this, please call me as soon as you can. Thanks.
