Subject: Re: Three FBI documents -Reply
Regarding 124-10035-10184 (105-82555-1st nr 2095), I suspect that this is a document that had two rif numbers assigned to it by the FBI. If that is the case, and I will explore that with them, we need to delete it from our database. And it will probably disappear from yours when you do updates. I will let you know what the FBI says about that one. I have some other documents that appear in our database as postponed in part, but don't appear in their hard files. Here are the numbers, and again, this is not an urgent request.124-10066-10482 (62-109060-4240)124-10063-10024 (62-109060-4183)124-10058-10036 (62-109060-3648)124-10027-10355 (89-43-113)124-10258-10004 (105-82555-4311)124-10087-10065 (105-82555-5660)124-10041-10479 (105-82555-5511)124-10039-10072 (105-82555-5359)On another matter, remember 124-10144-10086 (62-109060-4321)? This is the document from the Headquarters JFK file headed "Reaction of Soviet and Communist Party Officials to the Assassination of President John F. Kennedy". It is dated 12/1/66. You sent me a copy that was heavily redacted. Would you check you interfile pile for this document. Some of the information redacted, I think is "Solo" information that should have been released by the Bureau a long time ago. As above, not urgent. Thanks a million.
