Subject: Re: Letter to Livingstone

Body: David, Thank you for your message. I anticipated the possibility of my letter to Livingstone appearing in one of his books. That's why I "subtly" included the phrase "others would believe it to be unfair if we were to give you privileged access to the information that you are requesting, even though you assure us that you are discrete and would keep quiet what [the Review Board] is doing" You may be interested in knowing that he promptly responded saying: "I received your fax prior to my trip in the morning. I appreciate it. Your responses are entirely satisfactory to me in view of the circumstances." We'll see. Best, Jeremy
