Subject: Re: Update on NPC Records

We're pursuing this from two directions. Doug has gotten the name/number of a point of contact in Anacostia who can fill us in on whether they continue to hold any records at that location. I was informed by the Navy record manager that, to the best of her knowledge, any records not at Anacostia (and not destroyed) are most likely in Federal Records Repository in Suitland. (She had no specific knowledge of NPC records, but gave that as her best guess.) To smoke out anything at Suitland, we'll need to go review their accession files again -- as we're already planning to do on some stuff from ONI and Joan's Holy Grail documents.
