Subject: Re: phone call from D. Bartholomew

You may tell him that we are aware of these issues and that we are pursuing leads in this area. We also do not comment on the status of our searches. To: Jeremy Gunn/ARRBcc: From: Eileen

Sullivan/ARRBDate: 10/15/96 10:55:58 AMSubject: Re: phone call from D. BartholomewI have received two follow-up voicemail messages from Mr. Bartholomew regarding his request for an update on these issues. Do you have anything to add to Doug's response?(below). Should I tell him we are "pursuing these leads but are engaged in the deliberative process...." ?thank you.To: Eileen Sullivan/ARRBcc: Jeremy Gunn/ARRB, Laura BartholomewI have prepared draft letters for Jeremy as follows:2 drafts of one letter to IRS requesting various information re: LHO's employment;2 drafts of a second letter to Social Security Administration re: LHO's employment;

I do not believe that either letter (to IRS or to SSA) has left our agency yet; the legal considerations are more complex than I realized. Jeremy and Laura are competent to speak on those considerations--I am not. I know Jeremy has contacted Marina Oswald Porter, and asked her to sign a next-of-kin waiver which, if signed, would provide a much higher likelihood of success for our requests. I do not know whether Mrs. Porter has signed the waiver, or not.I am sending Jeremy a copy of this e-mail, because he may want to weigh in on how much you tell the public about these issues at this stage, and how much you don't. In my opinion, the deliberative process is still ongoing, and we are just beginning in this area of LHO's employment and wage records; Jeremy, you may want to provide some advice to Eileen in regard to how much we should reveal at this stage about our initial efforts in this area.We have not taken any action yet, to my knowledge, about the issue of the reportedly missing/confiscated Stripling Junior High School records. BartholomewHi Doug. I realize that you have enough on your plate, so if this request requires a lot of digging, please let me know.Dennis Batholomew called today requesting an update on his previous suggestions. He said that Tom said we would keep him informed of anything and that he has also talked to you. I told him it is virtually impossible for us to update everyone who provides us with leads/suggstions, but that I would see what I could find out.He wrote to us about the work of John Armstrong, and the findings of Strickland Jr. High records re: Oswald, and Oswald's W-2 form ID numbers possibly being incorrect. Does this ring a bell with you?thanks!
