Dear Mr. Bowley: Thank you for your e-mail message of October 16, 1996. The latest on this situation is that Judge Marcel Livaudais ordered that Connick turn over the originals to the Review Board after copies are made for him. District Attorney Connick has appealed the decision. Gary Raymond was held in contempt of court and sentenced to 6 months in prison--he has appealed this decision. Richard Angelico was fined $100 and received a suspended sentence of 3 months in prison--this decision was subsequently overturned. I hope this answers your questions. Please let me know if I can be of further assistance. Sincerely, Eileen A. Sullivan

Subject: Connick
Dear Eileen, I have been following the events in New Orleans concerning yourselves and Harry Connick Snr for sometime and have written about it for a research journal in the UK. I am about to update any changes in the next journal and was wondering if you could let me know what the latest situation is? The last I heard was that Connick allowed a group of board members down to New Orleans to view the documents to see if they would accept copies instead of the originals. Once a decision was made they had to report back to Judge Livaudais in New Orleans. Also, I know that the business with Gary Raymond and Richard Angelico is really nothing to do with you, but do you happen to know what is happening with them? It would be appreciated if you could help with information on any of the above. I thank you for your time.
YOURS
SINCERELY
JUSTIN BOWLEY
