I have not been to the JFK Library. Jeremy is probably your best bet for someone who has actually seen RFK's papers. I do have the finding aids for the RFK papers if you would like to look through them.To:Michelle Combs/ARRBcc:From:Ron Haron/ARRB Date:11/26/96 04:56:37 PMSubject:Attorney General and Deputy Attorney General papers at Kennedy LibraryHave you been to the JFK library? Let's talk about this at some point.--RonTo:Jeremy Gunn/ARRBcc:Ron Haron/ARRB From:Phil Golrick/ARRB Date:11/26/96 04:51:17 PMSubject:Attorney General and Deputy Attorney General papers at Kennedy LibraryAs you know, we have a meeting scheduled for Tuesday morning (Dec. 3) with Melanie Pustay to discuss adequacy of the search for assassination records in the files of "DOJ leadership offices." In preparation for this meeting, it would be helpful to get some sense of the results of the review of the papers of RFK (and any other high-level DOJ officials) conducted at the Kennedy Presidential Library. Even if a formal write-up is not yet available, it would be useful to have the people from our staff who looked at such papers tell us what they did and didn't see.
