Subject: Re: Are You On Board, Phoenix Base?

Phoenix Base on Board and, unlike Boston/Cape Base, not covered by several feet of snow! Chet was able to hook me up in no time and now all I need is some work to do! Thank you for your condolences, re: Dick Swett. It was indeed a disappointment. He had even received a congratulatory call from President Clinton before the numbers turned around on him. Their internal tracking poll numbers had been really positive right through the weekend before the election, and my impression is that they really thought they were going to win, so the election night turnaround was particularly painful as a result. The weather here is great and we have pretty much settled in, though a never-ending list of home-and-house-related tasks is keeping me busy... oh, the joys of semi-home ownership! The trip out was a quick one... I left Western Pennsylvania on a Wednesday at noon and reached Phoenix late Saturday afternoon. Besides stopping in Cincinnati to see some old friends for dinner on Wednesday, and eating Pizza Hut pizza in Hope, Arkansas along the route, the only memorable part of the trip was my first visit to Dealey Plaza, which I reached around 10 PM Thursday. I just walked around for a couple hours that night, stayed at the nearby Paramount Hotel (with a view of the plaza from my window), then walked around some more and toured the 6th Floor Museum Friday morning. I was on the road again, headed toward El Paso, by about noon. I was really glad to have made the stop, though... I had stopped at Arlington on my way out of D.C., so the circle seemed complete... I trust all is well with you, between the joys of matrimony and the hurly-burly of Massachusetts politics. My phone number is 602/955-6633. Hope to hear from you at some point, and if you're ever in the southwest, we have plenty of room...
