Too many things arehappening here at work that I can only explain over a StrawberryMargarita. Unfortunately, because I was very sick last week with bronchitis and aSinus infection, I was out a lot and there was no way to get part of theday off today. In addition to having a couple of explosions happen onFriday that I had to clean up this morning. Anyway, I hope it went welland hopefully I can participate in some other upcoming events. I hope I didn't disappoint you. Gotta go, but hope to talk to ya soon.Kyra
