Subject: Re: Postal Service Compliance

Body: OK. In terms of locating additional records (and in addition to sorting out the status of previously requested accessions, which Sheila Allen and Joe have been discussing), Joe recently wrote a memo raising the possibility of a mail cover on Oswald when he was in the Marines, and therefore the possibility that postal or military records might document such a mail cover. Joe's memo, as I recall, has been disseminated (at least electronically) to Jeremy and me. Joe, it might be a good idea to give Ron a copy as well. Jeremy, do you think it makes sense for the military team to try to follow up for any Marine or ONI records that might be on point?
