Subject: Re: Top Secret Clearance for R. Haron

There is no way that we can get the letter from DOJ by then. However, David has authority to grant clearances, we only use DOJ for guidance. We have all of the info on you and your file looks fine so you should talk to David about briefing you into TS when he returns and we can add the letter from DOJ to your file after that. It's David's call.

Subject: Top Secret Clearance for R. Haron
Tracy--We are trying to schedule a compliance meeting with the Dept. of Navy on Jan 2 or 3 (those dates were proposed by the Navy's Office of General Counsel). I want to participate in this meeting to the full extent with Tim and Chris, particularly since an attorney from the Navy will be present. For me to do so, I anticipate that top secret clearance will be necessary. Is there any way that a determination can be made on my top secret clearance before those dates? Please let me know. Thanks.--Ron
