Subject:	Re: Joe's 2/7 letter to Betty Ball
Body:	I approved the letter before it went out, and he had a couple back-and-forths on revisions. David approved sending the letter over Joe's signature on these circumstances. I didn't run it by you, because I understood the subject-matter to fall within David's oversight responsibilities, rather than yours. The sentence means what it says. To:Phil Golrick/ARRBcc: From:Jeremy Gunn/ARRB Date:02/09/97 08:20:52 AMSubject:Joe's 2/7 letter to Betty BallDid he clear it with you before sending it? Does he know procedures--having letters vetted? I see no marking that anyone signed off on it.What does he mean--"please remove from the disk any RIFs that do not correspond . . . .?"
