Subject: Re: Senator Glenn

Tom:Your list of things to do looks comprehensive. For the professional associations: we will need to rely on the Board and their contacts. I also think that Anna (in addition to handling the AHA) should contact Page Miller on our behalf. Kermit should get the OAH, and Bill the SAA. Do you think that it can wait until I call them when I get back or should I email them? There was some discussion of this issue at the Board Meeting last Thursday. Keep me posted. I hope your last weeks at work are going well. David.To:David Marwell/ARRBcc:From:Tom Samoluk/ARRBDate:02/17/97 08:49:46 PMSubject: Re: Senator GlennDavid-I think he should do it, but it means that because Dettlebach was so concerned about the White House reaction and specifically asked to be advised on what feedback we got, Jack's contact with the White House must be made right away. We do not want them to learn what's going on through an inquiry from Glenn or someone else. I will reach out to Jack.Other things I intend to do:1. Give Jeremy input on Final Report (and then make sure it goes to Hertling, Dettlebach and Joyce from Stokes' office, when draft is ready).2. Contact Michelle Mrdeza.3. Talk to Joyce from Stokes Office.4. Call Bill Morely.5. Edit teacher's letter and call him.6. Work on highlighting accomplishments more specifically, per suggestions at Hill meeting.7. Let Dettlebach know what White House reaction is, once Jack makes contact.Please advise me how you want to handle the historical associations as far as getting them to write a letter to targeted Members on the Hill. The Board members have contacts with the associations. I think we need to at least have the letters ready, even if we do not send right away.I'll keep you advised. I should see Glenn in two weeks, when, I believe, he is supposed to be here to move his papers project along. I can also take your letter to Stokes and tailor it for Glenn. I can get that in his hands and then visit with him. What do you think?
