Subject: Re: interns, etc. . .

More updates on potential interns --Ann Miller (Smith College NCAA Woman of the Year 1996, Univ. of Arizona Law School) called to say that she had accepted a paying job in a law firm in Phoenix. I had talked to her on the telephone & liked her, then I talked to Joe about the possibility of him meeting her when he is in Tuscon. Oh, well. Have you talked to Noushin Jahanian since I reported to you on her references? To: Jeremy Gunn/ARRBcc: From: Laura Denk/ARRBDate: 02/24/97 05:02:28 PMSubject: Re: interns, etc. . . A follow-up message --Stephen Silver called this afternoon to withdraw his application for a summer internship. He has accepted another position for the summer. To: Jeremy Gunn/ARRBcc: From: Laura Denk/ARRBDate: 02/24/97 10:13:38 AMSubject: Interns, etc. . . Last Thursday and Friday, Ron and I interviewed Stephen Silver and Craig Brown, both of Georgetown Law School. We liked both of them and we should probably sit down with you for a brief meeting to talk about legal interns for the summer. On another, related, note -- Tracy sent me a voice mail message last Friday from Jason Huber, who apparently talked to someone who was said she was doing some research for the ARRB and thought we might need some research assistance (or assistants.) I don't know who he talked to or what type of position he is applying for. Would you like for me to call him & ask him these questions? If he is applying for actual employment (and not an internship), do you want him to send a resume?
