PMSubject: Tomorrow morning
Jeremy, a few weeks ago I sent you an email about my son being tested for a learning disability. The organization has now reached a conclusion and has asked that my husband and I come in for a conference. They are adamant about both he and I being present. They have offered me an appointment for tomorrow at 8:30 am. please let me know if it is ok with you that I am out of the office for this until approximately 10am. I can work late in the evening Tracy emailed both of us earlier regarding the DOJ briefing at 10am. I will try to attend both if ok with you. Cathy
