Subject: Re: Annual Report inquires

See below. We have tried to be very helpful in the past to Morley. Is he being friendly or presumptuous? To: Jeremy, Tomcc: David, Eileen From: Thom Wilborn/ARRB Date: 03/13/97 10:18:33 AM Subject: Annual Report inquires Jeff Morley with the Washington Post is reviewing the 1996 Annual Report and has a lengthy list of requests. They include: 1. Are the Cuba-related documents released from President Kennedy's National Security Files (Page 30, ARRB FY 1996 Annual Report) now available to the public? No. Are the documents at NARA? No--they are at the JFK Library. They were not designated assassination records. Is there a document list or description of that material? No. 2. Can we provide the document numbers for the "Mexico City Chronology" released by the Review Board at its 6/4/96 meeting. 3. Can we provide copies of the 8/6/96 public hearing testimony given by John Pereira, J. Barry Harrelson and T. Jeremy Gunn. 4. Would Mr. Gunn respond for the Review Board, in writing, to a question concerning the requests to the CIA for additional information and records (Page 30, ARRB FY 1996 Annual Report). Will Jeff Morley respond, in writing, to a question that I ask him? How can we know whether or how we will respond without knowing the question?
