Subject: Re: Toner

Look everyone, I don't mean to be getting anyone upset here. Tim came to me when the toner was getting low. It was on Wednesday. I left Christina a note for a rush order. I know she said she didn;t have time to get the stock order number from older paperwork. Unfortunately, once Tim took the toner out of the machine to get the numbers off of it, and put it back in the machine, it no longer would work to print out even light copies as it had earlier. I don't know what project it is exactly that the machine is needed for, but I have seen several persons on it - for further info on this particular aspect, you should see Tim., But... If I have upset either one of you, I apologize. You should tell me so if I have and you should tell me how so. I didn't feel my previous emails were accusatory or rude in any way. If you feel differently, I'd appreciate your input.Back to the matter at hand, if the supplier does not carry it, can we get the toner from another source, maybe aj stationers perhaps? Can you let the folks who use the machine know that they should tell us when the toner is getting low as opposed to empty. If we can get the toner in at all tomorrow, it would be most helpful and we'd be very appreciative. I have a copy of the original order from Canon so we can check the stock number from that.To:Tracy Shycoff/ARRBcc:From:Christina Mays/ARRB Date:03/13/97 11:13:49 AMSubject:FedEx orderWe received the airbills yesterday, but most of them were carelessly done by the representative. I'm going to fax them a reorder sometime today.FYI- Does Oval sell toner for the microfish machine?
