Subject: Re: Later this week...

Chris:Nice to hear from you.First, ironically and unfortunately, I may be in DC for Thursday and Friday. David and I are kind of holding off on whether or not I should come, depending on what we have to do as far as meetings on the Capitol Hill. I will let you know what the plan is as soon as I know. If I'm up here, we'll work out something for lunch maybe on Friday. But, you should see the people you need to see and we'll work around your schedule.Second, as I recall there is Howard Johnson's Hotel on Commonwealth Avenue near Fenway Park. Another possibility is a Holiday Inn on Cambridge Street near what is called Government Center. These are probably the most inexpensive hotels that come to mind. Nothing cheap at the airport.Third, yes, BU is on the Green Line of the T, making it easy to get to from other parts of the city.I'll let you know whether I will be around or in DC.

I will definitely be in Boston Thursday the 20th (after 1:00 p.m.), Friday the 21st and Saturday the 22nd until 3:00 p.m.. I am still trying to determine the times I need to be dealing with the people at BU; while I am working on that, is there any particular times that either work or don't work for you to get together, if you're still interested? Let me know what works best for you.Also, I am still trying to find an inexpensive (ha!) hotel to stay in. Do you know any moderately priced ones near BU or the airport? Also, is there a "T" stop at BU? Thanks, Tom. I look forward to hearing from you.Christopher
