Subject: Documents Available to the Public

Howard, it was good to hear from you. It was a pleasure to meet you two weeks ago while we were all observing the copying of the Zapruder film frames at the National Archives. For any questions related to documents which are available to the public, I really must refer you to either Eileen Sullivan (who deals with the research community), or Tom Wilborn (who is our press and media officer). The identifying numbers of the documents released by the review board each month are published in the Federal Register, but perhaps in a form which is not too revealing re: content. Also, remember that key Federal Agencies transferred many, many documents to the new JFK Collection at the archives BEFORE the ARRB even got started. We are dealing with the residue that has not yet been transferred by these agencies to the Archives, or which they chose to try to keep redacted when they made their initial deposits in the Archives in 1993 or 1994. If you want the low-down on the universe of documents available now to the public, you should call Steve Tilley, the Curator of the JFK Collection at the Archives, at (301) 713-6620 Ext 360 for information on what they hold, and how to access their data base. If you want a story on what the Review Board has been doing the past two years, you might call Eileen Sullivan and ask for our FY 1996 Annual Report (just issued), and our 1995 Annual Report. If you want our "recent doings," or "prognosis for the future," you should talk to Tom Wilborn or David Marwell. Our omnibus phone number here is: (202) 724-0088. Best regards, Doug

 Subject: Hello Doug
 Hope this finds you well. I wanted to say hello and thank you for all your help last week. I have more questions about what is available to the public, in terms of documents ARRB has released. May I call you at the office? Things here are as hectic as ever. Talk with you soon.
