 C. D. JACKSON was the publisher of LIFE magazine in 1905. In the book "Deadly Secrets," by Warren Hinkle and William Turner, it says on page 185: "Jackson was president of the CIA's Free Europe Committee in the 1950s and was also special assistant to President Eisenhower for psychological warfare working on anticommunist propaganda for Eastern Europe...Drew Pearson wrote in his "Diaries 1949-1959": LIFE magazine is always pulling chestnuts out of the fire for the CIA; and I recall that C.D. Jackson of the Life-Time empire was the man who arranged for the CIA to finance the Freedom Balloons. C.D. Jackson, Harold Stassen, and the other boys who went with me to Germany spent money like money while I paid my own way. I always was suspicious that a lot of dough was coming from unexplained quarters and didn't learn until sometime later that the CIA was footing the bill." (Henry Luce, the owner of Time, Inc., was a right-winger on foreign policy who often disagreed with JFK, particularly on Cuban foreign policy issues.) I do not know whether these characterizations of Jackson's career are accurate or not. I am not convinced there are any redactions in the Zapruder film affidavits--I note some apparent spacing irregularities, but I do not know what they mean. I believe that some court in the State of New York would have these original documents on file...you might ask to see the originals, or certified true copies of the originals, from the New York court system before you proceed on the assumption that there are any redactions on these documents. Howard--I cannot answer any more questions on this subject. Please do not send me any more questions. We are prohibited from serving as research assistants for any researchers, and I cannot afford even the appearance of having served as the research assistant for one researcher, and not for another. Every time you send me a question, you are creating an assassination record for all eternity. I wish you the best of luck in your research, but it must truly be your research. We are spending the taxpayer's money here, and it must be on the search for records for the JFK Collection, not on assistance for private research projects. All future questions should be relayed to our public affairs staff. Best of luck on your own private research in the future--Doug To: Douglas_Horne @ jfk-arrb.gov @ internetcc: bcc: Douglas Horne/ARRB) From: Howard @ mpimedia.com (Howard Motyl) @ INTERNET @ WORLDCOM Date: 04/03/97 10:57:19 AM CST Subject: Clarification needed Doug When we met in Washington, you had mentioned that the editor or publisher of Life magazine had had ties to the CIA in the 50's. Is there documentation of this? Who is the person? Stolley? C.D. Jackson? Also, on the redactions that are made on the Zapruder affidavits--I showed you those, the ones I had received from a researcher--is there any speculation about what has been whited out? the names of Secret Service or police or FBI officers accompanying Zapruder? I wonder if you have any information on this matter. If you are not the person
