I wanted to know if the letter to Linda Dean requesting the Assistance of Randy Rakers is okay. I put it in your in-box on Thursday. I wrote a new letter because I could not find the previous letter in the files. On another issue, I wanted to know if you are still interested in hiring people. I have a resume of a person I knew in graduate school who will now be attending Georgetown's National Security Studies program in the evenings. He is seeking full time employment while he goes to school. He is a bright fellow and real team player type.
