Subject: The info you need

1. According to the Public Contact database, his full name is Charles W. Holmes.2. Your description of the log seems acceptable to me. [I have included below the text Tim wrote when we first got it in case you wish to look it over, but I think what you wrote will suffice.]3. He has asked for no restrictions as far as I can tell from Tim's reports. I am going to call him today and inform him that this is in progress; if he adds any restrictions at his own initiative, I will inform you of them. If you don't hear from me today on this, assume that there are no restrictions."While in the Air Force, Mr. Holmes was assigned to the Special Air Missions wing in 1968. In 1973, when the unit headquarters was relocating to a new building, a large amount of office files were thrown away. At that time, Mr. Holmes removed from the trash a ledger-type book containing log-type entries made by wing personnel at the time of the assassinations of JFK and, later, RFK. Mr. Holmes kept this "log" in his possession since that time, and has offered to turn it over to the ARRB for transfer to NARA."
