Subject: Re: running this weekend?
again -- yes!! I was unexpectedly out of the office last Friday so I didn't get your e-mail until Monday. I was sad not to have had your number at home. But this weekend, we will definitely go (hopefully Sunday -- I'm not sure Saturday is going to work for me.) What time & where? My home number is (703) 549-9693. Work is (202) 724-0088.

Sorry we didn't hook up last weekend. I ended up running from my house to just Jones point park and back on Sunday morning. It was so pretty along the water that morning. The last 3 miles were up hill so, that was not fun!! I think I am going to do another 20 this weekend (coach Andy recommended it!). Any interest in joining me for part of the run? I am aiming towards Sunda, but I haven't check out the forcast yet.
recstat: Let me know if you are available. Kristin
