Subject: Re: Office Idea

That is exactly what telecommuting is all about. Let me check with GSA on this and see what I can come up with. I hope you ate something before you ventured into such a deep thought process!To: Tracy Shycoff/ARRBcc: From: Tom Samoluk/ARRB Date: 05/29/97 06:49:35 PMSubject: Office IdeaTracy: Please allow me an off-the-record question: What do you think the reaction would be of a federal agency that has space in Boston to an inquiry about loaning space (a desk/office) to an ARRB staff person, namely me? What got me thinking about this is that I really like going to an office in the morning, but I don't want to continue to pay the $400 a month. As an alternative to working at home after July 1, I thought that maybe an agency in the city might have an extra office that they would "loan" to us. Any thoughts? Any immediate reasons why not to inquire? Obviously there is a zillion square feet of federal office space in Boston, including in this building, which is what prompted this inquiry. Somewhere there must be someone who has an extra office, for whatever reason.I know it is dangerous, but I was just thinking ....Please let me know what you think.Thanks.Tom
