Subject:	Re: Misc.

1. I spoke with Steve Tilley who said that there are some drafts already in the Warren Commission documents at NARA. We need to provide him with exact dates of our selected drafts (if we have them.) He said what might work best is for someone from our staff to go to NARA to compare.I gave him the date of the McCloy memo, and he said he will check with Bill Grover.2. I placed a copy of Snyder's article re: Clay Shaw papers on your desk.To:Eileen Sullivan/ARRBcc: From:Tom Samoluk/ARRB Date:06/02/97 09:15:41 AMSubject:Misc.1. In addition to the Ford notes from the Rankin papers (which I think I have organized in a way that we can use; Ford version compared to actual final report -- copies of both versions for reporters), I had a copy of a memo from Commission members McCloy had written to Rankin. It, too, is an interesting document. The question is, did this rather pointedly-worded memo from McCloy, marked "confidential," with no "cc's," make its way into the Warren Commission papers that are part of the JFK Collection prior to the arrival of the Rankin papers? It is dated June 24, 1964. McCloy made comments on Chapters Two and Three. He wrote a memo, in contrast to Ford, who, as you know, scribbled in the draft text he was using. At any rate, if you are talking to anyone about the Ford notes, it is the same question for the McCloy notes/memo. Thanks.2. Please pull out the Dave Snyder article on the Clay Shaw paper from last year. I want to see what he wrote about. I have drafted a news release for Wednesday announcing the release. We want to highlight a sample, but do not want to highlight something that Snyder wrote about already. I'll look at the Snyder stuff (his article and what he sent us), when I get there later this afternoon around 4:00 p.m. Thanks.
