Subject: Re: Footnote in new Warren bio

Maybe the reason you haven't received them is that they hadn't been sent. I don't know. Sounds like a good reason to me. I enjoyed the three Reich articles. I must say that I thought Reich didn't look too good. Finally, as promised. To: ~~Peremycc~~ Eric From: ~~Joseph Freeman~~/ARRB Date: ~~06/06/97~~ 11:06:07 AM Subject: ~~Footnote in new Warren bio~~ Unfortunately (due to my reduced circumstances!) I did not buy the book, but only copied out the line I quoted in my earlier e-mail. So Eric may have to procure a copy on your end. I took some time in the bookstore to skim the relevant chapter (where I caught the reference to grandson Jeffrey) and it seemed to be a rehash of information already in the public realm (eg, Warren having been the only one to view the autopsy photos, etc.). Also, I don't believe the Ford notes you referenced have come through as yet. FYI. To: ~~Dave Montague~~/ARRBcc: ~~Joseph Freeman~~/ARRB From: ~~Jeremy Gunn~~/ARRB Date: ~~06/06/97~~ 06:48:43 AM Subject: ~~Footnote in new Warren bio~~ Dave: Please find Jeffrey Warren. Joe: could you fax to us the relevant pages? Eric: if Joe can't fax the pages, would you see if you can borrow the book? To: ~~Peremycc~~ From: ~~Joseph Freeman~~/ARRB Date: ~~06/05/97~~ 07:21:09 PM Subject: ~~Footnote in new Warren bio~~ As you're probably well aware, there is a new biography of Earl Warren out: Chief Justice by Ed Gray. The book contains a chapter on the Warren Commission. On page 427, in a footnote, Gray refers to a Jeffrey Warren (Earl Warren's grandson) as "the family's acknowledged expert on the Kennedy Commission." It's a long shot, but you might want to consider finding and contacting Jeffrey, just in case he knows something about the 9/18 Executive Session. For what it's worth (since you called me with the explicit purpose of getting closure on my old memo, I hesitate to even mention the above).
