Subject:	Re: Flight to Warsaw

Body:

I promise, from now on, never to apply common sense when confronted by the bureaucracy.To:Jeremy Gunn/ARRBcc:David Marwell/ARRBFrom:Tracy Shycoff/ARRBDate:07/22/97 02:44:23 PMSubject: Re: Flight to WarsawIn order to get a govt. fare you will need a govt. office to authorize the expense on their government travel card and issue travel orders. Who will be paying for your travel? They should have a travel office that can help you. We cannot authorize the govt. fare through our office and SATO since the travel isn't on our behalf.To:David Marwell/ARRBcc:Tracy Shycoff/ARRBFrom:Jeremy Gunn/ARRBDate:07/21/97 04:45:26 PMSubject: Re: Flight to WarsawI don't know. This is not being done through State. Is there someone to ask?To:Jeremy Gunn/ARRBcc:Tracy Shycoff/ARRBFrom:David Marwell/ARRBDate:07/21/97 04:39:41 PMSubject: Re: Flight to WarsawI think that you have to travel under US Government travel orders to be able to get a government fare. Would State cut travel orders for you?To:Tracy Shycoff/ARRBcc:David Marwell/ARRB From:Jeremy Gunn/ARRB Date:07/21/97 04:23:14 PMSubject:Flight to WarsawI will be attending an official OSCE meeting in Warsaw in early September. OSCE, to which the U.S. belongs, will be paying the cost of my transportation.Question: may I legally and properly obtain a US government fare for the plane trip? Rationale: because the US government helps pay for OSCE, it would be a saving for the US taxpayers (although a small amount) if I were to travel on a government fare. To me personally, there is no difference in cost. It simply would effect a savings for taxpayers.
