Subject: Re: Notification of 19 June,1997

Body: Dear Mr. Byrne:Thank you for your patience while I gathered some information before responding to you.I will be sending you the RIFs for the Abraham Bolden file that is now open in full at the National Archives. It is quite an extensive file (although there are only four RIFs) containing eight large file folders. Topics range from the Secret Service investigation of Bolden regarding extortion allegations to the Sercret Service's investigation of itself based on allegations made by Bolden regarding the adequacy of security measures.I am still looking into the 19 Church/Rockefeller Commission documents to get more detailed information for you.Again, thank you for your patience, and I'll be in touch soon.Eileen SullivanTo:Eileen_Sullivan @ jfk-arrb.govcc: (bcc: Eileen Sullivan/ARRB)From:101705.3356 @ CompuServe.COM @ INTERNET@WORLDCOM Date:07/02/97 04:09:32 PM ASTSubject:Notification of 19 June,1997Dear Ms Sullivan,Please forgive my troubling you again.On theabove date you notified me that the Ford Library had released, or madeavailable, 19 documents forming part of the records of the Church andRockefeller Commissions. Can you elaborate on these releases ? To whatparticular aspects of those reports do they relate? Have you any RIF numbers,numbers of pages involved etc. Your help would, once again, be most appreciated.In addition, your notice also mentioned USSS records relating to files onAbraham Bolden. Do you have further information concerning RIFs and reportsinvolved?With best wishes from a wet and cold UK.Sincerely,   Paul Byrne
