

NR_key_name: 0074AE58FE0A451E852564EB00767D67

SendTo: CN=Joseph Freeman/O=ARRB @ ARRB

CopyTo:

DisplayBlindCopyTo:

BlindCopyTo: CN=R ecord/O=ARRB

From: CN=Laura Denk/O=ARRB

DisplayFromDomain:

DisplayDate: 08/06/1997

DisplayDate_Time: 5:59:09 PM

ComposedDate: 08/06/1997

ComposedDate_Time: 5:34:14 PM

Subject: Re: How about Tuesday, then?

I will put the word out about lunch on the 12th and let you know the response. Kevin said that he thought a lunch plan would be best for him with the new little person, the one slightly bigger person, and the two four legged canine individuals eagerly awaiting his return each night at home. As for the additional participants, your original e-mail was addressed to Kevin and me, but also to Bob, so how about Bob? (especially since we've already mentioned it to him.) And, I figured that you would have sent the original e-mail to Brian, too, but he was not working here when you sent it so you couldn't. Anyway, we've already mentioned it to him, too. Sorry. Who else would you like to see? What about Doug? Eileen? Joan?? Jeremy? Please, please, PLEASE don't make me compile any more guest lists -- I've done so many in the last year that the mere mention of them causes me to revert to panic mode. More in the a.m. on the substance of your e-mail, although I will say now that Alaska sounds incredible. So, until then. . . To: Laura Denk From: Joseph Freeman/ARRB Date: 08/06/97 04:10:27 PM Subject: How about Tuesday, then? How does lunch on the twelfth sound (I really have no preference, but we need to get this train moving!)? Since I've decided on the day and venue, you and Kevin have to decide where, the specific time and additional participants! (I got the best of this deal!). Just let me know! If there are people who can't do lunch for whatever reason, but would rather do a happy hour (not to suggest there are thousands of people that concerned one way or another with my brief presence in D.C....) I can probably swing that, too. I am proud of your running totals for Greece! Good job! I had only heard bits of your ARRB staff news, re: promotions, offices of one's own, etc. Jeremy had mentioned something about Joan and the supply closet at your reception... I look forward to getting a full update over lunch! Oscar is coming back early for the Alaska trip (normally he doesn't return to the states until Thanksgiving, and, for all we know, he may be going back to Israel for a couple months after the Alaska trip; he's spent the last month, actually, in Edinburgh, Scotland, living out of some college dorm room) which will include 2 days south of Anchorage on the Kenai peninsula (including boat trips to the Kenai Fjords National Park/marine mammal viewing, etc.), 3+ days in Denali National Park (after what's supposed to be an incredibly beautiful 8 hr. train trip with "bubble--top" easy-viewing railcars...), then 2 days in Fairbanks (further north), than 2+ days in Gustavus near Glacier Bay National Park (southeast Alaska, more boats, "calving" glaciers, marine mammals, etc). 8/27 to 9/7. Should be great if the weather holds and if everyone can get along for that long a stretch! I've purchased binoculars and will be taking plenty of photos! Along with East Africa, Alaska is a place I've always wanted to go (before it, too, gets ruined...). So I'm looking forward to it! I'm sorry to hear about Huang Sua and the time-to-think syndrome... I hope it turns out OK for Bob. He's such a good

Body:
recstat: Record

DeliveryPriority: N

DeliveryReport: B

ReturnReceipt:

Categories: