Subject: Re: Cartha DeLoach Book

"Hoover's FBI" indeed is the book I was told about; there is not another book, although it came out in paperback in 1997. In the bibliographical note to DeLoach's book, he says he kept "meticulous notes on every days' important activities" and that "much of what I have written is based on these detailed notes" He also claims that he "supplied [Jim Bishop] with much of the raw material from which" Bishop wrote The Day Kennedy Was Shot. I suggest we write DeLoach a letter asking that he make available to us for inspection the original notes that he has maintained. Do you want me to draft a letter? Have you seen or have a copy? If not, can we get a copy for the office? (I can buy it for the office and get reimbursed unless there is some other procedure).--Ron
