Subject: Re: DOJ Criminal Division Letter dated September 30
 This actually may be a case that falls between the cracks. Laura -- have we taken care of a response? To: Jeremy Gunn/ARRBcc: Tom Samoluk/ARRB, Laura Denk/ARRBFrom: Ron Haron/ARRBDate: 10/12/97 04:02:35 PMSubject: Re: DOJ Criminal Division Letter dated September 30Jeremy -- I assume you are referring to the letter regarding the Criminal Division's review and/or clearance of FBI records with Criminal Division equities. This letter asks that the Review Board not release, at its October 14 meeting, the documents that are still under review by the Criminal Division. I have not prepared a response to this letter. Based on our staff meeting, I had assumed that any substantive response and follow-up correspondence to the referral letters would be done by the team for the original agency seeking to get the documents cleared (in this case the FBI). No one has discussed with me either this letter or what our substantive position is (i.e., whether we are going to release the documents at the Board meeting or give the Criminal Division additional time). Let me know how you want to handle. -- Ron To: Ron Haron/ARRBcc: Tom Samoluk/ARRB, Laura Denk/ARRB From: Jeremy Gunn/ARRB Date: 10/11/97 09:31:21 AMSubject: DOJ Criminal Division Letter dated September 30Please confirm that we have responded to the September 30 Letter.
