I believe this agency should pursue obtaining the tape-recorded interviews from Fred Newcomb...these would be new records that no one has yet had access to. I see this as very much equivalent to us getting interview tapes from Mr. Lifton--you can't deny the importance of a tape-recorded interview. Shall I write the letter to Fred Newcomb, or does this fall under Tom's bailiwick as the person who pursues private records? (Actually, it seems like Tom's thing to me.) Let me know.

Murder From Within was written by my father Fred T. Newcomb and Perry Adams. Perry recently passed away...Dad lives in Altadena CA at 58 W. Pine St. 91001... Before he died Perry put everything on disk. The entire manuscript from 1974 has been rewritten and updated. On tape they have hours of interviews with Yarborough, Greer, Kellerman and many Dallas Cops who saw the "hole" in the windshield at Parkland.
