 Dear John. Thanks for writing. Yes, I remember you and it is nice to hear from you again. Anything that the Review Board has made available is in the "public domain," so please feel free to reproduce these materials for your members. I will send you copies of the excerpts that the Board made available from Clay Shaw's journal, along with past document samples of papers from J. Lee Rankin, and 7 NSA documents recently released by the Board that relate to the assassination. If it is not too much trouble, I would be interested in seeing copies of your journal. If it is too much, just future copies will be fine. Thank you very much, and thanks again for writing. Eileen
