 I have not heard this story before. However, unless Jeremy thinks otherwise, we should talk about pursuing this matter with Texas Christian University in Fort Worth. We could start by simply sending a letter to the library at the University and inquiring whether or not they hold the papers. If Jeremy says "go," then let's talk about getting a letter out to the University and you can e-mail the writer and say "thanks for the info. No, we have not pursued to date. As with all suggestions and leads we receive, we will review the information that you have provided. Again, thank you."

 TEXT: The daughter of Lee Harvey Oswald, alleged assassin of President John F. Kennedy, says crates of information concerning her late father remain unexamined at a Texas university, and not even she has been allowed to look inside. June Oswald Porter, 21, says the papers were part of her late grandmother's library, which was donated by her uncle to Texas Christian University in Fort Worth. "No one, not even my sister and I, has been allowed to see the collection, she says. The library consists of "probably the most complete collection of material concerning my father," she says in a bylined article in People magazine. Porter, whose mother remarried when June was 3, says the papers were given to TCU after Oswald's mother, Marguerite, died without leaving a will. "Though we have fought to obtain possession of the library, the matter needs to be pursued through the courts," she says. She also says she first discovered "the hatred people have for the name Oswald" as a freshman at the University of Texas, when a roommate demanded that she move because "her father would not allow her life to be put in danger by living with me." Porter describes herself as an aspiring journalist attending a university in the Northeast.
