Subject: Re: ARRB advisory

Thank you for writing. Please know that the Review Board is committed to releasing all of the documents related to the assassination of President Kennedy. Although we do not have the authority to re-investigate the assassination, the Review Board has broad powers that allow it to acquire and release records held by the federal government, state and local governments, and private citizens. All of these records will be housed in one collection at the National Archives. Many millions of pages of documents are already in the JFK Collection. With these records now available to all people, researchers, historians, and authors can gain broader insight into the assassination and draw their own conclusions based on actual documents. I hope this information is helpful to you, and again, thank you for writing. Sincerely, Eileen Sullivan

DEAR EILEEN, I DO NOT WRITE VERY WELL, BUT I REMEMBER THE DAY WHEN PRESIDENT KENNEDY WAS ASSASSINATED, THIS WAS A SAD DAY FOR THE ENTIRE WORLD, IF I HAD THE FUNDS I WOULD CONTINUE THE SEARCH, AND BRING THE PEOPLE RESPONSIBLE TO JUSTICE; HERE IT IS SOME THIRTY FOUR YEARS LATER, AND PEOPLE LIKE MYSELF STILL WANT THE TRUTH TO COME OUT. PLEASE LET ME KNOW IF THERE IS ANYTHING I CAN DO WITH THIS MATTER, I AM ALSO DISAPPOINTED THAT THIS MATTER IS NOT ON PUBLIC TELEVISION YEAR AFTER WITH AN OUT CRY FROM THE PUBLIC DEMANDING THE TRUTH ABOUT PRESIDENT KENNEDY MURDERS; INSIDE MY HEART I STILL FEEL THE PAIN AND LOSS OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY, PLEASE RESPOND. M LUNA PIENA
