Jack, I have put three messages into Bernard's office asking about a time for the Bahamas meeting. For my request, Steve highlighted November 7th as a good date for you. He has not gotten an answer back yet. I have not heard from Jeremy that there has been any response from Pereira. As I understand it, the word has gone to the appropriate people in the field that this is a priority. That is where it stands. I will check with Jeremy again today. I hope things are going as well as can be expected with the pro se defendant.

Thanks, Tom. By the way, any developments on our proposed CIA meeting and our proposed NARA meeting? JRT

I will check on status of Cuban documents; I have not heard anything about them. We can work out the best format, as we focus on the trip in the coming weeks.

I can set aside almost any date for the trip 6 weeks or so in advance. I guess I would prefer to do it on a Friday for less disruption to the trial week, unless you think a different day would be better. For a trophy document, are we making any progress on Cuban documents? I am open to whatever format you think works best. I would also probably consider having one other Board member go with me, along with you and perhaps Eileen. Let's try to talk by telephone in the next week about this. You could call Debbie and set up a time that will work with my trial schedule. Thanks, Tom.

Any focus on it was overtaken by the transition and the subsequent new responsibilities that followed the transition. However, I understand that this is something you want to do and I will now put it back at the top of the list as one of our priorities. I see the following as the necessary steps:

1. Pick a date for the trip (we would need about six weeks to plan, I believe)
2. Decide on format (mini media tour visiting local media or press conference)
3. Come up with a newsworthy announcement with which we would go to Miami; our news hook would be to announce a "trophy" document or set of documents that would be of interest in Miami and which we could display to encourage people to
