Subject: Re: ARRB's Interview of Hosty

The interview was very protracted, lasting several days. The transcription would be very expensive. Although there are segments that would be useful, the vast majority would not be. We should, however, have notes that could provide a guide for people who want to listen. I don't think the cost would be worth it.

PMSubject: ARRB's Interview of Hosty

I would like to suggest that the tapes of the ARRB's interview with James Hosty be transcribed (by a court reporting service). I think this would assist us in any interviews with FBI personnel and with FBI compliance. In addition, I think Hosty's statements are important enough that a verbatim, written record should be created in addition to the audio record. What do you think? --Ron
