Jeremy: Manuel has four NSA documents (basically the same core document with some accompanied by other cover letters and memos referencing congressional committee interest from various points in the 1970's) that will probably be "green" and ripe for the Board at the December meeting. However, Manuel was wondering if because they are NSA documents, and one(s) that will probably be of public interest, will the Board want to look at them and not just vote on them? If you agree with this scenario, do you think there is any time on the schedule for them to peruse these documents? I would really like to get these documents out soon. Because I think they will be press worthy, they could be helpful to us with a prospective Miami trip. Please advise me what you think about the time availability for the December meeting. Thanks. Tom
