Subject: Re: JFK Library Documents Project

Bill:Thanks for writing.We had some documents from the JFK Library that the Library had not made referrals on or that had never been reviewed by the relevant agencies. Doug's upcoming declassification session is the perfect opportunity to get these documents processed. Unfortunately, I had not done them yet. Bob mobilized the troops and with gusto and efficiency they got them ready for the declassification session, with time to spare. It was a very impressive effort by all and I wanted the Board to know about the teamwork that these staffers had displayed. The project was not the biggest or the most important, but I wanted to recognize these folks for their work.I hope all is well in your neck of the woods. Now that the calendar says "December" and with my travel back and forth between DC and Boston, I'm glad for every day that it doesn't snow!See you in about a week.
