Subject: Re: affidavit in Garrison papers

I have not seen this document in the collection that we acquired from Garrison's son. The researcher could check with the Archives to see if they can help because those documents are available there. There are additional Garrisons documents that are tied up in the litigation with Connck and you can tell the researcher about that situation. PMSubject: affidavit in Garrison papersA member of the public inquired about the whereabouts of an affidavit that is described as being provided to Jim Garrison by a man named Jim Hicks. Hicks admitted to operating as a "radio communicator" between "firing teams" the day of the assassination. The person referred to p.118 of the book Cover-Up by Gary Shaw. The guy has not been able to locate this affidavit -- any thoughts?
