Subject: Re: JFK Library Documents From Declassification Session
Tom, None of the JFK Library documents have been declassified in full. They still need to be reviewed by the NSC and OSD. Lisa Salvetti from the NSC was out sick for 2 of the 3 days of our joint session, but she is aware that she still has a large number of documents to review. She has tentatively agreed to come in on Friday, Dec 19. and as necessary to finish her pile prior to the next declassification session. Ralph Novak, the representative from OSD, will also try to come in on Friday, Dec 19. He was called out of our session early on DOD business. He is a much quicker reviewer than Lisa Salvetti and should be able to complete his review in one day.
