Subject: December Meeting Summary
The Board considered 299 documents at the December meeting. 8 of the documents were from the HSCA, while the remainder were from the CIA. The CIA documents consisted mainly of documents relating to the Agency's dealings with the HSCA, as well as the Agency's own investigation of the assassination. In addition, there were a number of documents concerning the publication of Philip Agee's books, as well as information on figures related to the assassination such as: Charlotte Bustos-Videla, Aline Mosby, Richard Nagell, J. Walton Moore, David Atlee Phillips, Boris and Anna Tarasoff, Richard Snyder. The HSCA documents included documents regarding anti-Castro activities and the HSCA investigation.
