Subject: Re: Status of CIA-13

No, I came across a detailed reference to a backchannel in Clarridge's book and asked CIA to confirm whether or not this channel existed in the relevant time period. I have not heard back from the DO but this request is one of the priorities for this month. The DO is supposedly working on an answer to all of our priority requests by the end of the month. This same issue is also holding up the Moscow backchannel memo which you have also seen.
