Subject: Re: This special day.
Many thanks, amigo! The day has indeed been special, not least as a result of your thoughtfulness. In the NYTimes today there is an article about romantic attachments between Korean women and non-Korean men, and how such attachments are often frowned upon by Korean families. Not so with your soon-to-be extended Korean family, but I thought you might want to pick up a copy/read the article anyway. (Do you want me to clip it and mail it to you?).
