Subject: Re: not Movies, but records
I do not yet know the names of the songs, let alone any of the words, but I keyed in on the waitress story on the first listen. I have been thinking of buying the Greil Marcus book, Invisible Republic, which is about Dylan and the Band's The Basement Tapes. Have you read/heard of the book, Joe? Also, I always need your take on events across the water. It seems to that the cops should have to show the evidence of IRA involvement in these latest killings. Especially if it means Sinn Fein is going to be booted out. The process fails without participation of Sinn Fein, doesn't it? Not that I condone the practice of enforcing behavior by killing one of your own, but at least one of the killings can't be called sectarian violence. Does that make any difference?
