Subject: Re: Bob Clark

Bill, In the less oracular version it can be mentioned that apparently a Board member told Clark about the Gore talks, and Clark called us with the threat that if we didn't tell him what was going on he was going to call all of the Board members, the White House, and the Vice President's office. Clark was not very diplomatic, and it was awkward for us -- because we could not discuss something that has not been formally communicated to us. Eileen called all of the Board members. I think you were the only one she didn't reach because the Library had closed. Best, Jeremy Jeremy: This is a bit oracular, Jeremy, but I take your main point.
