Subject: Re: My schedule today

Body: Clearly we will go to lunch and you will not work through lunch.Also -- Tracy says that we definitely have an adequate budget to fund your return in April. Now if we can just get Jeremy to agree. . . .To:Laura Denk/ARRB, Kevin Tiernan/ARRBcc: From:Joseph Freeman/ARRB Date:03/19/98 08:51:15 AMSubject:My schedule todayIf I miss you before heading over to the FBI, here are my work/travel plans for the day: I have to catch a 2:15 train out of Union Station, so I guess I should leave this office circa 1:45 or so. I can either stay at the FBI and work to the last minute, stopping back here to pick up my bag on the way to Judiciary Square metro, or I can stop work at the FBI much earlier and have lunch with you folks (if you can stand another one) before heading to Union Station. I should do the former, but could be persuaded to do the latter.Also, there is some possibility that Carolyn will be coming back to D.C. next month, the week beginning Monday 4/20. I had not intended to pursue coming back to PA on that trip, as I will see most of my family for a week in late June, but if Todd is willing to watch Finn again and you folks are interested, I can see if that would work (it's not even certain right now that Carolyn will be coming east or not). Unfortunately, I'd probably require the Board to pick up my air fare for that trip if I came. And my guess is, regardless of whether another few days of my time would be useful to the FBI team, bringing me back is not likely to be a high priority for Jeremy and the agency as a whole. But kick it around (if you want) and, at some point, let me know.Either for lunch, or just when I pick up my bag, I'll see you later.P.S. Grace is the best-behaved 10-month old in the whole world!
