Subject: Re: carry me back
Rob,I feel obliged to let you know that the Virginia legislature voted last year to stop using "Carry me back to ole Virginny" as the state song. I never knew all of the words, but it turns out that it was written in the voice of a former slave, remembering back to how great it was when he lived on the plantation, when life was simpler. An ancient device, nostalgia for the better days, but in reference to antebellum Virginia, one that is inappropriate in today's political environment I guess. I am sure there are other changes to the Old Dominion since you last lived here, but I can't readily bring any to mind. Sue and I are really psyched that you all are coming back. I hope we can get back in the groove with the whole Bohall crowd. Maybe a whist party is in order for some early evening. Give us a call. (205-1956). KT.
