HI Mose--Wow, it sounds like you've gotten alot done on the form. Here is what I would suggest for some of the questions:1.I wouldn't worry about the Christimas break jobs. I would also only list travel in the other relevant sections and just list unemployed during large chunks of time (again, not Christmas break types) like summers, etc. If you were travelling during those times don't worry about it unless it was foreign travel.2.I would list any foreign travel vacations under the foreign travel section only.Did I answer any of your questions? If I missed the point or you have more questions, why don't you give me a call and we can discuss them. Talk to you soon.TracyTo:Tracy_Shycoff @ jfk-arrb.govcc: (bcc: Tracy Shycoff/ARRB)From:bongos @ his.com @ INTERNET @ INTERLIANT Date:04/13/98 11:09:06 AM ASTSubject:Re: referencesHi Tracy,It is strange that my email did not go through to you because it looks likeI sent it to the correct address, but, anyway, at least we are in contactnow.I have spent a good bit of time working on my security clearance forms andI hope to have the majority of it done by today. There are a few documentsthat I will have to pull from files that are in storage, which will take alittle extra time. However, I think that the delay will be worth the wait,as I expect that these documents will speed things up.There are a couple of questions that I have for you. First, are there anytime increments that are too small to warrant inclusion. For example,should I include two jobs that I had for under two weeks during Christmasvacation while I was in college? Second, should I include vacations? Incases were vacations were extended should I list these periods as "TRAVEL"or unemployment? Should I describe these periods in three-month intervals? Or should I break them down; location by location or week by week?I'd like your advice on these questions. It seems to me that the clearestway to handle these cases is probably to break things down into theirsmallest form and include everything. But, I just want to make sure thatthis plan makes sense to you.Thanks, MoseAt 02:34 PM 4/8/98 -0400, you wrote:>>I received your fax yesterday.
